WEEK OF JULY 2

The Cape Playhouse has many problems to meet, many obstacles to overcome, but it believes that it can earn the faith, the respect, and the support of the people of Cape Cod. It believes that it has a place in the American Theatre. It aspires to be of service to many artist-workers, and to be a source of inspiration and recreation to the public. It hopes to work always from a sound financial basis, to be intelligently managed, to be sane in its membership. It has been built upon the faith and enthusiasm and energy of a few, and financed largely through the advance sale of season tickets. It has accepted no gratuities and no subsidies. It has a tremendous faith that the public will pay gladly for what is good in the Theatre. It plans to meet the expressed faith of its patron subscribers through this season's series of fine plays well done,—and to meet this faith through many seasons to come.

It has no policy, and no artistic creed; rather it has a deep hope of attracting artist-workers and public alike with an instinct for fine things; and here together, through gropings and blunders perhaps, bring these fine things to a true fruition.

RAYMOND MOORE

AN APPRECIATION

With the advent of its second season the Cape Playhouse wishes to thank its many season patrons and friends for their continued interest and support.

THE CAPE PLAYHOUSE PROGRAM

It is not the intention or purpose of The Cape Playhouse, Dennis, Cape Cod, Massachusetts, to make a general canvass for advertising.

The Cape Playhouse program has nothing in common with the ordinary cosmopolitan theatre program. Neither are advertisements displayed on the curtain, by films or in any portion of the house.

The theatre's locale, its atmosphere, the high standing of its casts, devotion to the written drama, and the character of its patrons, will insure the program being retained for perusal and reference. While practicing no discrimination, we have and will have only selected advertisers in keeping with the appreciation and approbation of our patrons. Its composition and circulation will be in keeping with desirable ethics of publicity and free from annoyances from various sources.

A scrutiny of list of advertisers will show shops, inns, hotels, tea-rooms and other business houses of a high grade who recognize the desirable character of our patrons and subscribers.

They have and are co-operating with our patrons and us in establishing this desirable feature on the Cape.

We earnestly trust that our patrons will favor them with their patronage.

Any information as to advertising should be addressed to

R. J. SLATER,

Telephone: Dennis 29-4
